NATIONAL EXCHANGE CARRIER ASSOCIATION, INC.'S PROPOSED 2012 MODIFICATION OF AVERAGE SCHEDULE FORMULAS

PLEADING CYCLE ESTABLISHED WC Docket No. 11-204

Comments Due: February 14, 2012
Reply Comments Due: February 24, 2012

On December 22, 2011, the National Exchange Carrier Association, Inc. (NECA) filed with the Commission its proposed modification of average schedule formulas for interstate settlements, pursuant to section 69.606 of the Commission's rules.¹ NECA proposes to revise the formulas for average schedule interstate settlement disbursements in connection with the provision of interstate access services for the period beginning July 1, 2012, through June 30, 2013.

Modifications to the average schedule formulas are based on a statistical sampling of the costs and demand of comparable cost companies. NECA indicates that the modifications include its proposal to divide the special access settlement formula into two parts, one for DSL costs, and the other for all other special access costs.² The proposed DSL formula is based on DSL line counts and DSL penetration.³ The proposed formula for other special access costs continues as a formula based on special access revenues and a retention ratio calculation.⁴ Overall, NECA estimates that the proposed formula changes would decrease settlement rates by approximately 5.0 percent, given constant demand.⁵ The effects of these formula changes on individual average schedule companies will vary depending on each company's size and demand characteristics. Companies who provide DSL through NECA's tariff (197
